

The 2008 South Carolina Weather Calendar!

Don't miss
our newest
outdoor-fun
connection –

Sunshine, clouds, powerful hurricanes, lightning, snow, wind—South Carolina's weather runs the gamut, and the 2008 South Carolina Weather Calendar covers it all, January through December!

Created by South Carolina Wildlife and the weather experts in the State Climatology Office, this glossy 12-month calendar is filled with breathtaking photos of Palmetto State weather, from wind-whipped waves to dazzling rainbows and everything in between. Functional as it is beautiful, the weather calendar also includes month-to-month weather facts and records and a large write-on calendar grid.

Plus, get weather savvy with special features between the months. Learn about South Carolina's volunteer weather watchers and their astonishing legacy of commitment—some with 100 years or more of reporting daily weather measurements! Get lessons on the new enhanced Fujita tornado scale, the sea breezes that form clouds inland and keep our beaches sunny and the lightning that illuminates our summer sky.
