

Kid-Friendly Activities at the Classic You Won't Want to Miss!

Kids under 10 receive free admission. There are a variety of activities for kids of all ages, and more than 350 vendors! Come out to find the best hunting equipment, fishing gear, boats, outfitters, knives, ATVs, tree stands, RVs, food, turkey calls and much, much more.

Children's Fishing Pond

Who knew you could catch a catfish in the State Fairgrounds parking lot? Come on out to our catch and release fishing pond, located next to the Ellison building, where kids can show off their fishing skills. Catch a tagged fish and you may win a special prize! Children of all ages are invited to participate in this fun activity. Fishing rods and bait will be provided.

Kids' Activity Booth

Swing by the Kids' Activity Booth, located in the Nutt Arena, and cast away! Bring your children by to see what kind of fun giveaways and prizes they may catch!

QDMA Scavenger Hunt

Stop by the QDMA booth to participate in a scavenger hunt that will take you all around the fairgrounds. Participants will have a chance to win a grand prize of a South Carolina Hunting and Fishing Lifetime License for youth ages 13 and under. Additional prizes include firearms, bows, fishing equipment and other outdoor equipment.

SCDNR Youth Bass Fishing Championship

Come cheer on student anglers at the SCDNR Youth Bass Fishing Championship weigh-in starting at 4:00 p.m. on Saturday in the stadium arena. Prior to the weigh-in, anglers from The Junior Bass Federation, Student Angler Federation Clubs and the B.A.S.S Junior Bassmaster's Club weigh from the S.C. Youth Bass Fishing Championship on Lake Murray.

Purchase your tickets in advance online or at the gate. Admission will be $5 on Friday at the gate only (sponsored by Academy Sports + Outdoors) and $10 on Saturday and Sunday.

Kids under the age of 10 will receive free admission.
